Bender Enters Governor's Race Applies For Petition For GOP Nomination

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A former congressman and U. S. senator, George H. Bender, today appears to be Gov. C. William O'Neill's first opponent in the governor's expected bid for re-election in 1958.

Bender, now a special assistant to Interior Secretary Fred Seaton in Washington, Thursday applied by telephone to Secretary of State Ted W. Brown for petitions to qualify for the Republican nomination for governor.

O'Neill, en route home from the Rose Bowl game, is expected to announce his candidacy this month.

Bender, defeated in 1956 in a bid for re-election to the U. S. Senate by former Gov. Frank J. Lausche, a Democrat, told newsmen Thursday he would have no statement until Jan. 15, but that he would 'have plenty to say then.'

Bender went to the Senate in 1954 when he defeated interim Sen. Thomas A. Burke for the

Parking Meter Income In '57 Was $28,429

The 1957 parking meter income bolstered the city treasury with a total of $28,439.97 collected for the year, City Auditor Helen Coyne announced today.

The '57 total was an increase of $1,142.02 over the total of $27,296.95 collected from the downtown meters in 1956.

To verify what many of the Salem merchants called the biggest Christmas shopping rush in years, a total of $3,070.48 was taken from the meters during December.

The December total is the largest ever recorded for a single month since the meters were first installed.

Maria Callas Quits In Midst of Opera

ROME (AP) — Italy's newspapers and music critics almost unanimously condemned prima donna Maria Meneghini Callas today for sending glittering opening night audience home from the Rome opera after only a third of an opera.

The stormy soprano Thursday night said she had lost her voice and refused to continue after the first act of Bellini's "Norma." But virtually every front-page headline and critic in the land of opera blamed the walkout on irritation over the cool reception—and a few catcalls and whistles from the balcony—after her first big aria.

It was the first time in the Rome opera's history that a performance was not completed. The New York-born singer, heretofore one of Italy's musical idols, finally fled in tears through an underground passageway to escape 1,000 irate music lovers jeering outside the opera house.

Six-Member Commission To Make 20-Month Observation

WASHINGTON (AP) — With a send-off from President Eisenhower, the new Civil Rights Commission embarked today on a 20-month study of the nation's touchy racial problems.

On the commission are three Southerners and three Northerners—one of the latter a Negro. To them, Congress assigned the difficult job of finding and treading some sort of middle ground on racial and rights problems, then coming up with some kind of constructive report and recommendations by Sept. 9, 1959.

The big question is whether the commission can produce something the North can accept and the South can tolerate.

One immediate need is to find a staff director, who will be chief administrative officer and shopkeeper for the commission at a salary of $22,500 a year. The President will make the appointment after talking it over with the commission. The staff director's nomination, like those of the commission members, is subject to Senate confirmation.

The commission is a product of a compromise civil rights law Congress enacted in late August—the first legislation in this controversial field in some 30 years. Largely, the commission was set up as a fact-finding, study and advisory agency.

Congress gave it specific authority to investigate any complaints made in writing that persons have been denied the right to vote because of race, creed or national origin.

The commission also is supposed to survey present federal laws and policies to determine whether they afford proper protection for civil rights, and to assess legal develop-

1957 Is Driest In Thirty Years

Only 30.26 Inches of Rain Fell In District

Area farmers toiled through their driest season in 30 years in 1957 when only 30.26 inches of rain fell.

The total rainfall was 16.2 inches below that of 1956 which was 46.24 inches. Edwin Copeland of Millport, area weather observer, declared in his annual report today.

The dryness of the summer months of 1957 was in contrast to the rainfall recorded in 1956 which was so heavy it retarded the harvest of crops in the area.

June 16 and 17 when temperatures of 93 were recorded, were the hottest days of the year. The coldest day was Jan. 17 with a 14 reading.

The temperature in 1957 was near normal with each day averaging 3 degrees above normal. The lack of rainfall was not felt until half of the year was over because of the monthly average of nine inches of rainfall in 1956.

Judge John Fitch of Lisbon, sworn in as a Columbian County Court judge last month, will hold standing court as soon as his legal ledgers arrive next week.

Judge Fitch will hold court in the Masonic Temple building on E. State St. from 9:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

"I also hope to set up one night court a week for the convenience of two constables who are day employees at the Mullins plant in Salem," the judge said.

Some of the unanswered questions relative to the new court system are: how constables will be paid? who will convey prisoners to court? and, if they are sentenced to jail, who will transport them there?

Judge Fitch will handle cases in the northwestern district. His territory consists of Knox, Perry, Butler and Salem Townships, with a total population of 24,611.

The two other Columbian County Court judges are Luther Donard of Columbian and Samuel Crawford of Glasgow. Donard will set up court in East Palestine and Crawford in Lisbon.

Guarding Your Health

By DR. EDWIN P JORDAN

Discussion of Erysipelas

A reader, D.S., asks for a discussion of erysipelas, and I am glad to oblige.

Erysipelas is an inflammatory skin disease caused by a germ known as the streptococcus. It thrives best among the poor and those living under poor sanitary conditions.

Also, it is most frequent in early life, especially during the first two years. In old people, it again becomes relatively common.

Lowered general health from such things as bad diet, Bright's disease, or chronic alcoholism also favor the development of erysipelas.

It usually starts suddenly and is often accompanied with high fever. The most common location is on the skin of the face and head. Chills and other signs of a suddenly rising body temperature are usually present.

At first the skin in a single spot seems to be affected — often this is where there has been a small wound or scratch. The skin becomes reddened and swollen within a day or two and usually spreads rapidly. A sharp line separates the reddened skin from the normal.

In the usual case, and particularly if the patient is in good physical condition, erysipelas clears up in about a week even without treatment. Meningitis, inflammation of the kidneys, and even blood poisoning, however, are not unusual complications.

But since the sulfa drugs and antibiotics became available the chances of recovery have become much better. Several such preparations shorten the course of the disease and lessen the chance of serious complications.

The treatment consequently involves early diagnosis and the prompt administration of a suitable drug. Erysipelas is contagious and therefore the patient must be kept from contact with others in order to avoid spreading the infection.

State Board
Members Hold
42 Meetings

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Department of Education today totaled up the free service State Board of Education members have donated in the two years of the board's life.

Law requires the board to hold only four meetings a year. The board held the eight regular meetings required in the two-year period—and added 17 special ones.

The board met a total of 42 days in the 25 meetings although the members were paid only for the first 24 days. The extra 18 days were free. Members are paid $20 a day for a maximum of 12 days a year.

Despite the low pay and three free days of service, the board had a 91 per cent attendance record, board records show. In the two years, the 23 members amassed a total of only 86 days' absence.

Seven had perfect attendance records: President Robert Manchester of Youngstown; Elliott Meyers of Ironton; Wayne Shaffer of Bryan; Francis Spicer of Akron; James Lavelle of Milan; Ward Miller of Portsmouth and Paul Walker of Columbus. Three missed only one of the 42 days:

MR. AND MRS. VERNER Carrick of Lafayette and Mrs. Market Spear spent Christmas in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Spear.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stouffer and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stouffer and daughter Sally spent Christmas in the home of Mrs. Joan Haughton of New Waterford and Vaughn Black of Columbiana won high score in 500.

Ralph Hall of Columbiana won the door prize and Mrs. Norman Kornbau won the special prize. The Knights will sponsor another card party in four weeks.

Now Is the Time For All Skeptics

Whatever may be the staggering total of the proposed budget which President Eisenhower is working on, it will be larger than the 72 billion-dollar total that shocked the nation last January.

Yet there is less likelihood this January of the budget-cutting campaign that spiced the Washington news a year ago. The circumstances for opposing the 1958 budget are not favorable.

This year the country has been scared stiff by Russian Sputniks. It has been told repeatedly that the reason for its rocket lag is cheese-paring and penny-pinching, as if 38 billion dollars for defense in the current budget could be called penny-pinching.

Taxpayers have been made to feel ashamed in advance for hinting that they should be taken into consideration in budget-making; that they have rights as well as the militarists who are screaming for twice as much of everything and hang the cost.

Anyone who dares to mention such an indecent matter as declining ability to support the military in the style to which it is accustomed is locked upon as a suspected agent of the Kremlin. There even are some all-American chumps who are talking about missiles as a way to stimulate taxpaying ability to keep breast of military spending.

Missile-spending, some Washingtonians say, will be taken out of the civilian hide.

ICC Crumbs Will Not Be Enough

The Interstate Commerce Commission has announced it will not interfere with the Eastern railroads' proposal to jump passenger fares. Perhaps it will be equally broadminded about the more important proposal to jump freight rates. But the ICC is running out of crumbs.

The railroads that are in the most serious trouble cannot survive on crumbs. They need a change of public policy to give them a new lease on life and profit. They need more business and the right to go after it catch-as-catch-can against opposition that now is sheltered by public subsidies and freedom from crippling taxes. They need to be able to get rid of passenger-carrying operations that bleed them of freight profits. They need to get a host of lice-picking politicians off their backs so they can concentrate on railroading.

What they need most is a new point of view on their status. They are not the monopoly they had become when their operation was placed under the ICC in the 1900s. That point of view needs to be revised.

But neither are they in a battle for competitive survival with trucks, airplanes, barges and private automobiles. The idea is not for any one of these to crowd many of the others to the wall, because the country needs them all. What must be done—and soon, if the railroads are not to be forced into some form of government ownership and operation—is to equalize the terms of the competition. For example, why should railroads pay heavy taxes on their rights-of-way and terminal facilities while airlines get these indispensable facilities free? Why should they build their own rail lines while truckers share the cost of building highways with all other highway users? Why should the government build canals and dredge rivers to subsidize barge lines, unless it also is willing to build bridges and tunnels for railroads?

Ways must be found to give the United States all the transportation it needs, not by subsidies and special privileges but by equal competition. This is going to be one of the key problems before Congress this year.

Senate hearings will be conducted, starting the middle of January, on the deteriorating railroad situation. A subcommittee of

There will be cutbacks in spending for such things as housing and welfare.

Other Washingtonians think at least some missile-spending will be taken out of other military spending. But they are disputed hotly by militarists who claim that everything in existence must be kept in existence, much as the U.S. cavalry was kept in existence long after tanks and airplanes had made horses useless for reconnaissance.

Congressmen, caught between the upper and the nether millstones, will go through a gritty ordeal of trying to keep the new budget within reasonable limits, then will give way to free spenders because in 1958 the politically popular thing to do will be to save the United States from the rocket menace.

Now is the time for all skeptics to come to the aid of common sense. The same "experts" who now are going to tell taxpayers that it will take at least 40 billion dollars to protect them were telling taxpayers last year that it could not be done for a penny less than 38 billion.

They were wrong then and they could be wrong now. Taxpayers have a right to believe they should be protected for what they are able to pay. The sky is not the budget limit. It is barely possible that the defense budget next year, missiles and all, might have to be pared by two billion, instead of padded by a like amount. And if that's the way it is, militarists will have to live inside their income, just like the rest of us.

Looney Larceny In '57

The Welcome Mat

By MEADER G. PATTINGTON

It looked bad there for a little while. But 1957 finally turned out to be perfect in the loony larceny department. Somebody stole the kitchen sink — from a grocery store in San Antonio, Texas.

And at least one thief dismantled a house in Visalia, Calif., while the owner was away, although he did leave the foundation.

Real estate was very popular all around. Some thieves in Birmingham, Ala., removed a two-car garage.

What is a home without a site? At Penn Yan, N.Y., 100 feet of Keuka Lake shoreline property was stolen. Enterprising purloiniers backed in trucks during the night and hauled away 5,000 or 6,000 cubic feet of lakefront land.

Three officials of a railroad in Seoul, Korea, were dismissed on charges of stealing 10 tons of rails.

FOUR YOUNG THUGS in Freeport, N.Y. stripped a man, he said, of all his movables — 65 cents in cash and his false teeth.

A petty thief in South Shields, England, sent to a psychiatrist, lifted

$2.80 from the doctor while being questioned.

Maternity dresses — 150 of them — were stolen from a parked car in Tampa, Fla.

Someone got a man's goat, one of two he had left in his car in front of a garage in Hasbrouck Heights, N.J.

In Cleveland, Ohio, on probation for mail robbery, a man committed bigamy, forgery and assorted theft, then went to San Francisco, had himself appointed a probation officer. Results — a four-year sentence as a probation violator.

A drug-addicted convict in Walla Walla Wash. state penitentiary eagerly ripped open a package of three hollowed-out religious books. Instead of an expected 3,000 Benzedrine-type pills he found a note from the warden: "To whom it may concern — pill smuggling in this prison has been discovered."

IN LONDON, two men tried to burglarize the U.S. Embassy and were convicted on evidence given by Police Constable George Washington.

Burglars in Glasgow used eight pounds of butter to grease the floor in a grocery store, slid the store's safe to the door to their waiting getaway truck.

A lady's skirt was searched and found to contain a chicken, two pounds of butter, oranges, a small ham, a pound of perch, some chopped beef, a box of tissues, a bottle of laxative, two cakes of soap, headache tablets, two combs, a bottle of shampoo and two bottles of hair bleach. The shoplifter explained: "I didn't pay for the bleach because I didn't want my friends to know I bleach my hair."

Church services were quietly interrupted by a stick-up artist in Indianapolis who took wallets from several worshippers. Burglars are mean. They walked off with the poor box, $300 in cash and a $250 mahogany pulpit in Akron, Ohio.

The poor box in another church in Waukesha, Wis., had $3.50 stolen. The boys responsible then spent the money at a church festival.

A BANK ROBBER in Denver was nabbed as he boarded a bus. He readily surrendered the $11,200 loot, but when the arresting officer grabbed the dollar bill he was holding for bus fare, he protested: "Hey, that's my own money."

Beverly Hills, Calif., had a versatile crook. Arrested for running a red light, officers found that the car was stolen; that the thief was a two-time loser for burglary and forgery, had passed $12,000 worth of bad checks. "I usually travel by air," he complained, "air depots take bum checks."

If the police of large towns and big cities cannot stop wanton attacks by street hoodlums on civilians, I predict the revival of some variation of the vigilantes who took care of the baddies until the law arrived in frontier days.

One good thing about a new year is an excuse to get rid of a lot of reading matter that was left over from the old year. The thing to do is start with a clean desk. Absolutely. By the end of a week it will be cluttered again anyway.

Merrily whistling along the highway of life one day recently, I was reminded by a cynical bystander that my musical theme was a personal loan company's TV advertising song, which is a tribute to the power of advertising.

The sadists now have discovered that they can give a woman a "barrel look" by puckering the top and bottom of the "sad sack look," the only Paris fashion decree to be openly resisted in my lifetime.

It was hard to believe the little blue spruce Christmas tree, when finally planted, was the same towering giant that sprained two sacro-iliacs on its way in and out of the house.

The best TV impression of 1957 must have been made by Marian Anderson on Ed Murrow's "See It Now" show. Unfortunately, I missed it, being up to my hairline at the time in Ayn Rand's "Atlas Shrugged."

If it seems puzzling that Charles E. Wilson should be blaming President Eisenhower for defense cuts, it may help to remember that Mrs. Charley Wilson once blurted her opinion that her hubby did not deserve to be blamed for things he could not control while he was secretary of defense.

Poisonous sumacs can be recognized because the berries always hang in drooping clusters. The red berries of the harmless sumacs are in dense, erect clusters.

Nickname for Dartmouth College's athletic teams is "Indians," derived from the fact that the school was chartered in 1769 as a charity school for the Indians.

Propaganda Freedom

By DAVID LAWRENCE

U. S. Press, Radio Unintentionally Aiding Soviets

The American press and radio are unintentionally the best instruments of propaganda the Soviet Union has in the world — and the Soviet government, with deliberate intent, is the worst enemy and most persistent saboteur of American news that the United States faces in the world.

David Lawrence

This absence of reciprocity was conspicuously illustrated by the propaganda conference of hand-picked representatives of Afro-Asian nations held at Cairo last week by the Communists. The American press and radio spread widely the distortions uttered there. They were in many instances given first-page display. Here and there were some pointed comments on the editorial pages warning that the conference was Communist-inspired.

There was, of course, some important news in the Cairo conference itself but the contrived nature of the Soviet domination of the whole thing and the behind-the-scenes activities were not exposed on the same pages that told of the Afro-Asian conference. Had any American or European official uttered such a criticism, it would have been widely printed on the news pages, too.

The Soviet government gets away with many things like this, including a strict censorship over what American correspondents send out of Moscow.

NO PROTEST against this censorship has been made in a long, long time by any national organization of news writers or editors in America or elsewhere. So apparently the Soviet government feels it can go ahead with its censorship without alienating world opinion.

The Moscow government, moreover, selects carefully what correspondents it will let enter the Soviet Union. Data about each prospective correspondent must be submitted in advance and the Communists make up their own minds who will be admitted. They give no reasons for rejections. Likewise, only certain newspapers and magazines are favored and, no matter what the scope of the publication is, there are no reasons for rejections. Likewise, only certain newspapers and magazines are favored and, no matter what the scope of the publication is, there are no reasons for rejections.

As for the so-called "right to know," every government bureau in Moscow conceals most of its information. Yet the press in the Western countries rarely raises a voice in protest against such suppression. That's one reason why the Soviets are winning the propaganda battle in the world.

A One-Man Show

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington (UPI) — You'd be hard put to name three men—besides Secretary Dulles—who work for the State Department. His is a one-man show, now going into its sixth year.

If he has any plans for dealing with the Russians other than those he started out with — and his basic plan he inherited from the Democrats in 1953 he hasn't revealed them.

There's been no evident change in Dulles except for a toning down in his once flamboyant statements. He hasn't been talking—since the Russians unveiled their missiles—of "massive retaliation" on the brink of war.

At 70 Dulles is the most traveled secretary of state in history. Since taking office five years ago, he's gone over 355,000 miles. And he's getting ready for more.

He went to the NATO meetings in Paris in December, will probably go back for the spring session.

As for the so-called "right to know," he is just another horse in the Dulles stable. Dulles is boss around here. The people around him carry out his orders."

Stassen, specialist on disarmament, worked directly under President Eisenhower until Dulles brought him under his control by having him shifted to the State Department.

Stassen as been an ambitious politician all his life and may quit to seek the Republican gubernatorial nomination in Pennsylvania. But he has been almost as quiet as Herter in recent months, although it has been reported there is deep disagreement between Stassen and Dulles on how to deal with the Russians on disarmament.

Dulles, despite a cancer operation 13 months ago, is extremely active for a man of his age. He shows no sign of tiring. And he shows no sign of retiring either.

The man laughed. He said: "Nothing I know of. Herter is just another horse in the Dulles stable. Dulles is boss around here. The people around him carry out his orders."

Once Over

The man hadn't been a party to New Year's Eve hilarities. Echoes of horn-tootings, champagne corks and rattle shakings made him wince a little. He was a queer guy, for he caught no feeling of a new year in calendar illustrations, night-club merrymaking and general incoherencies.

With the clock ticking off the last 10 seconds before midnight, grinning figures in paper hats pained him. He closed his eyes and ears to street celebrants, sirens, whistles, bells, confetti and loud laughter.

The stroke of 12 seemed to him a time for silence, solemn thought and dedication; a time for something like the spirit of Christmas Eve.

THE OLD GENTLEMAN with the scythe looked pretty bad. The kid with the rosy checks, busting to take over, didn't seem much like a cherub. He seemed more like a child-writer of mystery dramas, a newborn riddle, a mister unpredictable, with a nursing bottle. In the background stood Courage, Cowardice, Valor, Timidity, Love and Hate, War and Peace, Good and Evil, each hoping to star in the big scene. Not a horn tooter in the bunch.

It was hard to dope out Kid 1958. He could be a terrific force for happiness or an advance man for the Four Horsemen. He could come through with love and peace or hate and war. The man couldn't be sure.

But this he knew for certain: This typical routine New Year's Eve ruckus didn't fit into the current situation. The mood of a Coney Island Mardi Gras, a burlesque show, a revival of Hellzapoppin' or a rowdy change in saloon ownerships was out of place.

The year 1958 would be far too fateful. The

Noble Seeking Federal Support

Ohio's Highway Chief Hoping To Speed Expressway Building

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's highway chief and two of his top aides will fly to Washington Monday to seek federal support for a plan that would greatly speed up building expressways in large cities.

The highway chief, Charles M. Noble, and George Thormyer, first assistant highway director, and C. H. Makeever, deputy director in charge of planning and programming, will meet with Bertram Tallamy, chief of the Bureau of Public Roads.

They want the bureau to recommend to Congress that states that are ahead in their planning be able to get federal interstate money ahead of time—providing that does not affect the interstate money trust fund.

The federal government pays 90 per cent of the total cost of interstate highway projects.

Ohio has set up road projects for all the interstate highway money it has received to date from the federal government—about 200 million dollars.

Such a proposal has been made in the Rockefeller report to President Eisenhower.

More than 700 persons turned out to hear Wilson who earlier this week defended his budget stand of a year ago.

He insisted, as he had previous years, that the defense cuts reflected the mood of Congress which in turn reflected the mood of the country.

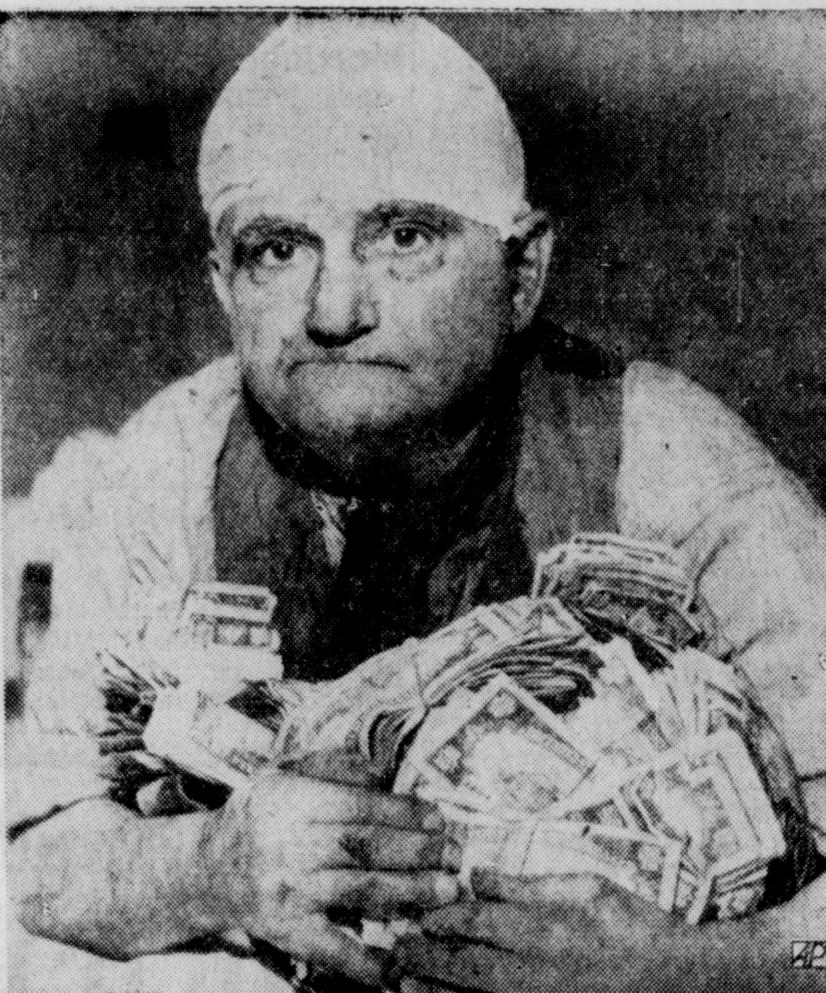

"I hope the present defense secretary (Neil H. McElroy) has easier sledding on Capitol Hill than I had last year," Wilson said. "I didn't do a good job of selling Congress a bill of goods."

KORNY KITTY — Most people would prefer turkey and all the fixings for Christmas, but not Zsa Zsa, the pet cat of Dwaine and Phyllis Dilts of West Yarmouth, Mass. For Zsa Zsa, just make it an ear of corn, well buttered please. However, the Dilts told the cameraman, that while corn is her favorite food, Zsa Zsa has a stomach like a goat and will eat anything that won't eat her. Zsa Zsa also does a pretty good job of posing for the photographer.

Man in Death Row Hopes For Commutation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Norman Walker is in Ohio Penitentiary's death row today, hoping for an 11th hour commutation from Gov. C. William O'Neill.

If the governor fails to grant executive clemency, the 32-year-old Cleveland man will die in the electric chair tonight for the fatal shooting of a Valley View, Ohio, police officer.

O'Neill's office said the governor would issue a statement on Walker's appeal today. There is no indication whether Walker's death sentence will be changed to life imprisonment.

Walker was convicted Oct. 18, 1956, of first degree murder in the death of Garner M. Robertson, a part-time policeman for Valley View, a Cleveland suburb.

Walker kidnaped Mrs. Rose Stasick, a 38-year-old divorcee he was dating, and drove her to Brookside Road in southern Independence near Cleveland. Robertson was killed by a blast from a shotgun when he stopped to investigate Walker's parked auto.

Walker was on parole from Ohio Penitentiary on a narcotics sentence when Robertson was shot.

Three youngsters heard his cries for help. They notified the sheriff's office, which in turn summoned help from the air base.

Turner said he had yelled to some earlier passers-by in a boat, but they advised him to "get out the same way you got in."

Turner was taken to a hospital, where his condition was reported as "pretty weak."

Owner To Seek Permit To Repair Building

Miss Helen Redinger of 1838 E. State St., owner of the temporarily condemned building at 194 S. Broadway, told Mayor Harold D. Smith Thursday afternoon that she expects to have a contractor talk with city officials soon relative to securing a building permit for the structure.

Miss Redinger was refused a permit by ex-mayor Dean B. Crammer after Fire Chief Clarence W. Wright condemned the building as unsafe. Council then turned Miss Redinger down because she did not have a state permit to continue repairs on the building.

She told council at its Nov. 5 meeting that the state had issued her a permit, but this was refuted by Ex-mayor Crammer at the Nov. 19 Council meeting.

Mayor Smith said he would issue Miss Redinger a building permit if she can prove that the building is safe.

Queen Becomes Member of Royalty In Fashion World

NEW YORK (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II of Britain has joined the ranks of royalty in world fashion but her sister, Princess Margaret, has been counted out.

This is the consensus of 2,000 fashion experts, editors and socialites who were asked to select the world's best-dressed women by the New York Dress Institute.

The institute's list, announced Thursday, is topped for the fifth straight year by Mrs. William Paley, wife of the chairman of the board of the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Queen Elizabeth placed fourth. Her sister had been on the list for four years.

The other selections are: a second-place tie between the Duchess of Windsor and Mrs. Winston Guest, wife of the American sportsman; 3. Countess Consuelo Crespi of Rome; 5. actress Audrey Hepburn; 6. Mrs. Henry Ford II, wife of the auto magnate; 7. Vicomtesse Jacqueline de Ribes of Paris; tie for eighth between actress Claudette Colbert and Mrs. William R. Hearst Jr., wife of the publisher; 9. the Countess of Quintaiana of Madrid; 10. Countess Mona von Bismarck, the former Mrs. Harrison Williams; 11. Mrs. Norma K. Winston, wife of a New York builder; and 12. Mrs. Thomas Bancroft Jr., of New York and Greenwich, Conn., wife of a textile executive.

PLEADS GUILTY TO FRAUD

CLEVELAND (AP)—Mrs. Temple Pose, 48, pleaded guilty in Common Pleas Court Thursday to defrauding the poor relief fund of $9,824. The mother of 10 children, Mrs. Posey said she took it in benefit between Jan. 9, 1953, and Nov. 30, 1957, while earning $1.66 an hour at an industrial plant. Sentence was withheld.

Several concerns immediately offered office space for the employment service and truck loads of equipment were scheduled to be started here today from Columbus.

It was expected, however, to take several days to set up emergency quarters and get the office back into operation.

Stanley Rowen Jr. is the owner of the 100-year-old building.

The fire started at a time when approximately half of the 100 or so employees were at lunch. All of those employed in the building and the patrons made their way to safety without mishap.

A look at the Gaither report on the state of the nation's defenses.

Symington challenged as "only a partial truth" last week's statement by White House press secretary James C. Hagerty that the report does not indicate the United States is in a position of weakness at this time.

The report, prepared by a committee headed originally by H. Rowan Gaither Jr., has never been made public. But newspaper reports have said it pictures this country as being in the gravest danger in its history.

It was understood the White House remains firm about not disclosing to the Senate group the two conclusions reached by the Gaither panel committee. Since the report has been made a National Security Council document and is labeled top secret, one member said the subcommittee is not likely ever to see it.

In this connection, Symington said it might be wise for the senators to seek testimony from some of the members of the Gaither panel.

Germany, Austria, Greece and Turkey and in Latin America were covered by Schorr during his years abroad. For a time he also reported from Washington, D.C.

He was the first American correspondent to be decorated for journalistic work in the Netherlands, receiving a citation from the Overseas Press Club for his radio-television interpretations from abroad in 1956.

Before joining the CBS news staff in 1953, Schorr covered the Low Countries for the New York Times, Christian Monitor, and London Daily Mail and handled special assignments for CBS.

During a survey tour of Indonesia, he uncovered a story which eventually brought the Dutch-Indonesian dispute before the UN Security Council.

Oklahoma State Defeats Kansas 52-50 in Overtime Bid

Top-Ranked West Virginia Hands 86-66 Loss to Canisus

By The Associated Press
Take Wilt Chamberlain out of the lineup and Kansas can be beaten — although not easily.

That's what some folks have been saying all along and Oklahoma State proved them right Thursday night, knocking the second-ranked Jayhawks from the ranks of basketball's unbeaten with a 52-50 overtime decision.

Paolo Rosi 9-5 Favorite Over Busso

NEW YORK (AP) — According to a usually reliable source, it has been rumored, reported and confirmed that Paolo Rosi and John Busso will fight tonight at Madison Square Garden. But the same source has been wrong four times.

They say on Broadway there is more wagering on whether the two lightweights ever will make it up the ring steps than on the result. Te flu bug and various assorted injuries forced four previous postponements.

Matchmaker Billy Brown couldn't be blamed if he insisted the managers wrap both fighters in cotton gauze until 10 p.m. (EST) tonight. They had to show up for a noon weigh-in, but armed guards should watch over them until ringtime.

The business got so bad in October that even Rosi's sub had to have a substitute. Gale Kerwin finally got the job of opposing Busso Oct. 25 and lost the decision but won a following. A scheduled Nov. 29 meeting was called off because of Busso's eye infection. The original date was way back in March, 1957.

Busso, now 23, finds himself with a Wednesday date for a draft board physical after all this waiting.

Rosi, 29, Italian-born but now a resident of New York's Bronx with his American wife, has been inactive since he whipped Ray Portillo at Louisville, Sept. 7.

They have made Rosi a 9 to 5 favorite as he is No. 5 among the lightweight contenders in the rankings of both the National Boxing Assn. and Ring. Busso is No. 8 with NBA and No. 10 with Ring.

The 10-round match will be carried on network (NBC) radio and television. Two judges and a referee will score by rounds, using a supplementary point system in case of even rounds.

In 31 rights since he turned pro in 1951, Rosi has a 26-4-1 record and Busso has a 31-1 mark for 37 bouts since 1952.

500 Greet Oregon's Bowl Team With Cheers

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Five hundred persons cheered as Oregon's defeated Ross Bowl football team flew into the Eugene airport late Thursday night.

One of the fans was Gov. Robert Holmes, who shook the hand of each player to come down the ramp from the air liner.

Holmes told coach Len Casanova as the crowd surged about the plane "It's wonderful to have you back with this great team. You gave us a wonderful game."

The biggest cheer was given quarterback Jack Crabtree, who ran and passed well as Oregon was defeated 10-7 by Ohio State.

Oregon's near victory was a "very, very great event," according to Dean Orlando Hollis, Oregon's faculty representative in the Pacific Coast Conference.

"It was a fitting climax to a fine season," he said.

All-Stars to Encounter Tucson Cowboys

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — A half dozen players will get a second taste of bowl play in less than two weeks when they line up with the college all stars in the first annual Optimist Bowl football game Saturday afternoon in Tucson.

A capacity crowd of 8,500 is expected in Tucson High School stadium to watch the all-stars play the Tucson Cowboys, unbeaten champs of the newly-organized Western Professional Football League. Proceeds will help the Tucson Optimist Clubs with their boys' work program.

St. Louis Bows 95-93 Before Philadelphia

By The Associated Press
Some St. Louis Hawks fans see a ray of sunshine through the gloom of a 95-93 loss to the Philadelphia Warriors Thursday night in the nightcap of a National Basketball Assn. doubleheader.

The New York Knicks walloped the Syracuse Nats in the opener 131-98 in the only other NBA action. The books were closed on the major holiday tournaments as The Citadel defeated Spring Hill 67-55 in the final of the Senior Bowl at Mobile, Ala., and Harvard employed a zone defense to good advantage for a 55-49 defeat of defending titlist Amherst in the championship game of the University of New Hampshire Invita-

The four-team NAIA Midwest Tipoff Tournament got underway at Macomb, Ill. Tennessee State routed Hamline 106-57, and Western Illinois turned back William Jewell 72-58. Tennessee State, 1957 NAIA champion, and Western Illinois meet for the title tonight.

A string of 16 straight points within a minute and 38 seconds midway through the second half broke the West Virginia-Canisius game wide open. At the time the Mountaineers spurted, the Griffins had pulled within three points, 50-47.

Springfield's Bulldogs trailed Spring Hill by 11 points after 12 minutes.

Then they settled down and gave a fine display of defensive ball as they took the lead shortly before the half and held command throughout the second period. Florida State defeated Georgia 92-80 for first place.

Harvard's 2-3 zone defense curbed the effectiveness of Amherst's Bill Warren as the Crimsons chalked up their eighth victory in nine starts. Warren got only 11 points. Springfield defeated New Hampshire 67-60 for third place.

Dr. Edgar White told the team's leading scorer of last year to throw away the crutches Thursday and indicated Dierking will be ready to action two or three weeks.

Dierking was injured last week in practice at Des Moines, Iowa, and it had been feared he would be lost for most of the season.

Since he was side-lined the Bearcats, fifth-ranked in the nation, squeezed by Drake 74-72 and then suffered their first loss of the year at Bradley 79-73.

The Bearcats used the big Valley Stream, N.Y., senior as part of a one-two punch, teaming him with their sophomore sensation,

Oscar Robertson.

CINCINNATI'S DIERKING TO PLAY IN 2-3 WEEKS

CINCINNATI (AP) — A fractured bone in his foot apparently isn't going to keep the University of Cincinnati's 6 foot 9 Connie Dierking off the basketball courts for the next few days.

Over the years the Tigers have had one of baseball's highest pay-rolls although they have not won a pennant since 1945 and have fin-in the last decade.

Outfielder Al Kaline, like Boone

Sportsmen, Murphy's Victors

Sekely's Edges Marks To Win B Division 1st Round

Sekely's won the first round in Division B of the Class B city basketball league Thursday night when it defeated Mark's Landing 66-62 in a playoff game.

The Sportsmen stayed undefeated in Class A action by blasting the McDaniels' squad 81-50, and in another "A" clash, Murphy's rallied in the second half to whip Youngstown Kitchens 47-44.

Phil Wenner of Mark's had 23 points but it wasn't enough to offset the more balanced scoring of the winners who were led by Andy Salkow's 21 markers, Chuck Greiner's 19 and Chuck Edie's 12.

Sekely's led all the way. It was ahead 39-25 at the half and 53-44 after three periods.

Twenty-five markers by Ed Jordan and 18 by Bob Paged led the Sportsmen over McDaniels'. Joe Guy had 11 for the losers Leetonia's new mayor, Ralph Kennedy, was presented with a beautiful walnut gavel by the office force of the Berg Bretzel Co. when Leetonia village officials were sworn in earlier this week.

Ohio Revenue In 1957 Hit All-Time High

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Revenue of the state of Ohio in 1957 hit a new high of $1,337,793,495, state auditor James A. Rhodes reported today.

Receipts for the first six months totaled $581,457,309; for the second six months they were $756,336,188.

December receipts of $200,360,672 broke all records for a single month, the report showed.

Monday, Dec. 30, turned out to be one of the state's biggest revenue days, with total receipts of $37,748,130.

Revenue from sale of notes and bonds helped boost the totals. Sale of highway bonds in 1957 yielded 125 million dollars, sale of capital improvement bonds 25 million and capital improvement notes 5 million.

Receipts from December liquor sales approximated 30 million dollars.

By comparison, Rhodes said revenue for the bookkeeping year, ended last June 30, totaled one and a quarter billion dollars.

Rhodes said that if state revenues during the first half of 1958 should continue at the same rate as in the last half of 1957, total receipts at the end of the bookkeeping year next June 30 would exceed one and one-half billion dollars.
